School Board Candidates' Qualifications Reported

This newspaper presents this column of school board candidates and their qualifications to our readers so that they can better decide which candidates have the most to offer as governing board members. All copy is edited to meet the standards set by this paper.

Dr. Samuel S. Sloan, a Lakeside optometrist, is a candidate for the Grossmont Community College District Board of Governors.

Sloan, who is married and the father of two, has been active in numerous service groups in Lakeside, including the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce and the Lakeside Kiwanis Club, both of which he is a past president.

district Board of Trustees.

Dickinson, married and the father of two children, is president of Valley Metal Works, Inc., and is a member of the executive committee and the board of directors of the El Cajon Chamber of Commerce.

He is also president of the El Cajon Rotary Club and vice-chairman of the El Cajon Industrial Development Commission.

Samuel S. Sloan

As president of the San Diego County Optometric Society, Sloan was responsible for the origination of a program by which all foreign exchange students in the county receive free visual care. He also received a Laurels Award in 1966 for his work in the Grossmont area for education. He is a life PTA member.

Sloan said that the most pressing problems of the district are rapidly increasing enrollment and growing difficulty in obtaining funds to keep up the present excellent programs.

William L. Dickinson, of 4800 Williamsburg Ln., La Mesa, is a candidate for the Grossmont High School Dis-education, drug policy, community involvement, long range planning, and unification as the major issues confronting the school district.

Dickinson said that the present district policy on drug abuse is a good one and should continue. He added that long range planning should include a businesslike approach to financing and planning for increased enrollment.

The End of the Road

Occasionally an editorial refers to a personal experience—and this is that type.

It has to do with the plateau from which we view life: its relativity, and the idea that nothing is so but that the mind makes it so.

The subject is a pensioner — a man quick of smile and a man generous with his drink money.

He frequents, as he has done for a score of years, a nearby tavern where he has accumulated a host of "buddies."

As far as we know, he harms no one. And in his singular fashion, he has brought a degree of happiness to those who spend more time in taverns than anywhere else.

A small grimace has become noticeable in his makeup as the heat of life's furnace begins to cool. He has become concerned that life's winter, as surely as winter follows summer, is near at hand.

At this introspective point, Wally, who like all thoughtful and sensitive men, wants to leave the best reputation drink money can buy when he makes his exit from this vale of tears.

But for whatever reason Wally had, he made his move last week. "Editor," he said to this writer, "I'd like to buy you a drink."

His alcoholic effluvia indicated that he had extended a similar invitation to many people earlier in the day — and had joined them in their joy.

That his invitation was rejected did not repress Wally—he had a purpose in mind.

"Editor," he continued, "when you write my obituary you won't refer to me as a common drunk, will you?"

"Wally, when your obituary time comes you will be described as the 'most uncommon' drunk in East County," he was told.

"You are my good friend," he said with a solemn handshake.

This vignette is relative only to the approach one man takes as he feels he is nearing the end of his journey.

There are those who are satisfied with nothing less than a huge monument to mark the path of his journey.

But to some — and Wally is the exponent of the philosophy — that just to be remembered kindly is more important.

Property Tax Deadline Finds Many Delinquent

If your county tax bill hasn't been paid you've got company. James E. Jones, County Tax Collector, said this week that more than $98 million in property taxes are still unpaid.

These taxes are now due and deadline for payment is April 12. A six per cent penalty will be added at the end of that day. A $3 a parcel penalty will also be invoked.

The last date for payment is normally April 10 but since that day falls on Saturday, it is extended until Monday.

If the tax bill was not received or was lost, the owner is still responsible. Owners without bills should contact the Collector's office at 234-8813 prior to the deadline.

Jones said most delinquencies occur during the first year of property ownership. New owners may ascertain the tax responsibility by checking escrow papers. He said that the second installment taxes may be unpaid because only the first installment was paid during escrow. Owner should ascertain whether he or the lending agency is to pay taxes. He should also be aware that the property is subject to taxes even if a bill has not been received.

Glenn Murdock's Replacement Named At Meeting Monday Night

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District Board appointed Dr. James R. Runge, 50, who has been superintendent of the Pajaro Valley Unified School District for the last five years Monday night as the man to replace retiring superintendent Glenn Murdock.

Murdock, 64, has been head of the district since 1947, when there were only four schools in the district and only 2,300 students. After 24 years under his leadership, the district now has 21 schools and enrollment has swollen to over 15,500 students.

Murdock

When Murdock arrived at the district, his salary was in the neighborhood of $6,500. He will leave the district September 1, leaving a salary of over $31,000.

Murdock served with the U.S. Navy from 1943 through 1945, stationed at Pearl Harbor. He is also a retired member of the Naval Reserve. He received his MA from Stanford University in 1936, and has been involved in education since then.

He has served as a teacher, principal and dean of boys at Redlands Junior High, and as principal at Redlands High School. Following his military service, he came to the La Mesa-Spring Valley area with his wife, Doris.

Murdock's replacement, James Runge, will step into a $28,754 a year post, and will take over as acting superintendent July 1. Murdock is expected to be vacationing during the last few months of his term.

Runge, who is married and the father of a daughter and a son, has held positions with the Palm Springs Unified District, San Jose State College, and the Pajaro Valley District, among others. He has served as both a classroom teacher and elementary school principal along with his administrative positions. He holds a doctor of education degree from Stanford University.

According to reports from the school district, Runge was selected from over 100 applicants for the job. Trustees, meeting in executive session off and on for the past four weeks, finally had narrowed the field down to eight candidates before making the selection unanimously Monday night.

Runge, a native of Baltimore, Maryland, has studied at Grinnell College, in Iowa, the University of Illinois, Western Michigan College of Education, the University of Michigan, and the University of California.

Petition Nears Completion For Broadway Strip

The Lemon Grove Planning Association heard committee members report that everything is "going according to plan."

Nearly 100 citizens attended the Tuesday night meeting at Lemon Grove Junior High school auditorium at which the reports were made.

New business included a Broadway improvement report from Bob Russell, L.G. Chamber of Commerce president, who said as he had at a chamber meeting a week earlier, that "a major property owner was signing the petition" to

Bob Russell Reelected To Head L.G. Chamber

Robert Russell, 1970 president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, was elected to succeed himself Thursday at the annual election of officers.

Mike Carlen, proprietor of L.G. Drug, was elected vice president; Joyce Foss was re-elected secretary, and Al Woods, BoA manager, was again elected treasurer.

Election of officers followed an election of board members earlier in the month. At that election the following were chosen for the board — some of whom were re-elected.

The new board consists of Russell, Woods, Carlen, Mrs. Foss, Wally Knutson, Louise Warren, Frenchy Faucher, James Dorman, Frank Shughrue, Del Lake, Bob Howell, Joe Davey, Jim Wilson, Ed Loop, Art Berry, and Mrs. Jerry Legerton, Robert Swenson and Sam Smith.

Fr. Robert R. Rockwell, minister at St. John of the Cross church was nominated by Shughrue to fill a vacancy.

Three new firms obtained chamber membership. They are El Amigo Cafe, Viking Fence, and San Diego Pet Hospital.

President Russell announced a project by which a revolving temperature and time sign would be installed in the north plaza for approximately $3,500. Emblems of local groups and clubs would be attached to the standard supporting the device, he said.

The board turned down a fireworks project by which a token payment would be made to the La Mesa Chamber of Commerce for permission to co-sponsor the annual July 4 display atop Winsor Hills to the north. It could be advertised as the Lemon Grove display, Russell said, but it was rejected on motion by Frank Shughrue Frenchy Faucher asked later for it to be tabled.

Officers will be installed at a dinner to be held June 5 at the VFW Hall, 2082 Imperial Ave., Lemon Grove. A prime rib dinner will be catered by the chamber's newest member, Chuck Jensen, of El Amigo. Dinner, at 7 p.m., will be $5 a person.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Our subject today is concerned with the Spanish names of the more common vegetables.

"La sanahoria" means "the carrot." There are two letters in the word that must be approached with care to permit the correct pronunciation. The Spanish "z" is sounded like the English "s." The Spanish "h" does not modify sounds so we must say the word as if the "h" were not there. Thus "zanahoria" is phonetically represented as "sah-nah-OH-ree-ah."

To BE WED — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conrey, of 3653 South Barcelona st., Spring Valley, announce the upcoming wedding of their daughter, Melinda, this Saturday at the First Baptist Church of Spring Valley, to Jack W. Eskridge.

Eskridge, a graduate of Mount Miguel High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin V. Eskridge, of 8932 Troy st., Spring Valley. He is currently enrolled at Grossmont College.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Monte Vista High School, and is employed with Pacific Telephone. After a brief honeymoon, the couple will reside in El Cajon.

When Australia's beilbirds store away caterpillars for future food needs, they use their beaks to pinch the worms to paralyze their nervous system. This does not kill them but keeps them from crawling away.

"Lechuga" means "lettuce." The word stress is on the letter "u" which suggests the pronunciation "leh-CHOO-gah."

Shipfitter Second Class Stephen L. Isley, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle D. Isley, of 8708 Hartzel dr., Spring Valley, is a crewman in the salvage ship USS Safeguard, homeported at Pearl Harbor.

"I sort of stepped into my rate of shipfitter because my father was a plumber," Isley said. "I already knew how to do most of the work and that made it easier. Now I work with sheet metal, do some welding and some pipe fitting. I am kept pretty busy with constant minor repair work but when I'm not doing that I'm diving," Isley added. "I learned diving before I came into the Navy and was able to put it to use here."

Isley explained that as a Second Class diver, "I can dive down to 200 feet. We have full diving facilities here on board so we can go down and investigate wrecks and determine if salvage is feasible."

Recently Isley and his shipmates have been diving to a sunken submarine off the island of Maui for practice. "To re-float her," he said, "we take air hoses down with us and fill up the ballast tanks."

Local Mormons To Attend World Meeting

"Some 40 officers of the three Mormon congregations in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley will attend the annual world conference of the church at Salt Lake City April 3, 4, and 6," Bishop Grant M. Seely, 1005 Osage dr., Spring Valley, said.

These delegates, representing the 2,000 members of the three local wards, will meet in the historic Mormon Tabernacle.

The proceeding of the conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) will be conducted by Joseph Fielding Smith, 94-year-old president. Church membership numbers in excess of 3,000,000.

Sunday's session of the conference will be televised over KFMB, Channel 8, from 9-11 a.m.

Organized April 6, 1830, the Church will report growth and show marked evidence of a continuing, vigorous leadership on its 141st "birthday." Joseph Fielding Smith, who will celebrate his 95th birthday anniversary July 19, became 10th president of the Church on January 23, 1970, succeeding the late President David O. McKay.

During 1970 there were organized 41 stakes (similar to a diocese) of some 4,000 persons each, bringing the total to 537. Nine were outside the United States. It was the largest number of new stakes organized in one year in the history of the Church. The previous high was in 1960 when 29 stakes were formed.

Church membership — 2,807,456 — at the start of 1970 is expected to pass the three million mark early in 1971, if it has not already done so.

The building program continues strong. The $30 million Church Office Building is across Main street from the Salt Lake Temple.

CONRAD LEMON GROVE MORTUARY

BY NIGHT — Sam Hannah, of Lemon Grove, and Kristi Clark perform with the Memphis Six, a local country music group, at the Chief's Club at the Naval Training Center.

Hannah works as a mechanic for the Navy Public Works Center by day, and sings with the group by night.

Public Works Employee Moonlights With Music

During the day he's a mechanic and by night he's a recording artist, song writer, and entertainer. He's a soft-spoken, quiet sort of a man and Lemon Grove resident. Sam Hannah is employed by the San Diego Navy Public Works Center.

He's been employed with PWC for the past three years. But he has a hobby. When he isn't busy working at the Center he is the lead singer with a group known as "The Memphis Six." The group presently performs at the Naval Training Center Chief Petty Officers' Club Tuesday and Thursday nights. But Hannah and his band have entertained for groups, clubs and parties throughout the San Diego area.

A spokesman for the Chief's Club called Sam and The Memphis Six "a young group with a lot to offer."

The group consists of two other featured singers in addition to Hannah. One is petite Kristi Clark and the other is male singer Denny Clark. The other members of the band are drummer Jack Eskridge, John Mercer on bass, Bob Corn on steel guitar, who is a petty officer second class assigned to North Island air squadron VAW 115, and choral backup singers Carol and Sandi.

But there's more talent owned by this soft-spoken country gentleman.

Last summer Hannah and the group made a tour of a place up north called Polks of Salmon. After the visit Hannah wrote a song about that part of the country, its logging men and truck drivers. Two of those songs have been recorded and are now on the market. Both sides of the 45 RPM record are Hannah's work. One side is "Salmon River Sam" and the other "I Haul My Freight Alone."

The record has been played several times over Radio Station KSON as well as by several other stations across the United States. And it is on sale in the San Diego area. The Memphis Six also has another 45 single release out by Miss Kristi Clark and Denny Clark. In addition Hannah and the group recently completed filming a pilot show known as Tempo West for a San Diego television station.

Hannah said he likes working for Civil Service and appreciates the security and benefits available as a result of his employment. And his boss, Larry Parlet, Director of the PWC Service Work Division called him an excellent employee.

"Sam is an excellent mechanic. You just never see this man without a smile on his face and he's always cheerful. I have had him working a lot of nights and weekends and he's never complained or used the excuse of his outside activities as a reason for not working. The men of my division meet the public at least 10 times more than other PWC divisions. The workers are PWC and the Center contact with the public. Sam is the kind of employee I want," Parlet said.

Hannah was born in Batesville, Miss., about 60 miles south of Memphis, Tenn. He has been playing Country Music for the past six years. He enlisted in the Navy for four years and came to San Diego for boot camp. He has performed with the Memphis Six since 1967.

District Employee Takes Courses In Bus Driver Training

State Superintendent Wilson Riles recently announced that Earl Briggs of La Mesa-Spring Valley School District is participating in a special course at the California Highway Patrol Academy here to be certified as an instructor in school bus driver training.

Briggs

Briggs was among a small group selected by the Bureau of Administrative Services of the California State Department of Education from among school transportation personnel around the State to undertake the intensive training.

Upon successful completion of the three-week course, Briggs will return to the district and be responsible for initiating and conducting school driver training programs.

At the Academy he will receive 120 hours in teaching techniques in classroom and behind-the-wheel instruction needed by bus drivers.

The aim of the program is to reduce the number of school bus accidents in California. There were 1,647 school bus accidents in the State in 1969, an increase of 3.3% over the previous year.

Friends:
It may have been a while since I talked to some of you. I guess you know that I am now at Pearson's Sales and Leasing over on El Cajon Boulevard in the 4300 block. But, golly, even a couple of weeks seem like a long time.
Most of you have known me during the fourteen years I was associated in the auto business in Lemon Grove. Your friendship is too valuable to let it dissipate just because we don't see each other. So come on over and let's have a cup of coffee and talk over old times.
Truly yours

Advisory Committee Formed To Study Sex Education Curriculum

Seventeen community members from the Heartland area are examining the proposed sex education curriculum of the Grossmont High School District.

The citizens, convened at the request of the Grossmont District, are reviewing the course content of the curriculum as well as reviewing instructional materials and films.

The group, called the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Family Life Education, has divided into four sub-committees to study the various units of the curriculum and to discuss the units with the instructor or instructors who developed the course outlines.

One sub-committee is discussing the course units in Personality Development, Early Dating, and Dating and Early Marriage. Another group is studying the units on Narcotics, Tobacco, and Alcohol; Teen-agers and the Law; and The Family and Family Problems.

Another group will be studying the section on Physical Development and Sex behavior, while the final group is reviewing the units on Normal Emotional Development, and Engagement and Marriage.

Members of the committee include Mrs. Maria Reeder, of Spring Valley, a former teacher, and Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, of Lemon Grove, representing the student views.

"The primary reason for the revision of the District's family life education curriculum is that presently the various facets of family life education are spread over many parts of the curriculum in non-required courses," according to Associate Superintendent, Stanley McClintic, who convened the committee as authorized by the Governing Board.

"The proposed family life education curriculum includes more than sex education; it is basically a course to help students better cope with their own personal problems.

"In the curriculum proposal, all the various facets of the subjects which are taught in a variety of courses at present, will be pulled together and consolidated into a single course offered at the tenth grade level and made a requirement for graduation by 1975.

"This required, coeducational course would not necessarily preclude family life instruction in other courses," said McClintic. "The idea is for the student to receive a unified, rather than a piecemeal understanding of sex and its physical and social consequences."

Post-Summer School Set At Mt. Miguel

All Mount Miguel students wanting to take an extra course this summer, will find it a relief to know 33 subjects will be open to them during the post-session from 8 a.m. to noon starting August 9 through August 31.

Classes fall into the categories of agriculture, art, business, education, English, home economics, industrial education, mathematics, music-performing arts, physical education, science and social science.

Oceanography and military science will be offered at Mt. Miguel only. Agriculture workshop, business skills, welding workshop and graphic arts will be offered at El Cajon Valley High School. Students will have to provide their own transportation.

Five units of credit will be granted to any student upon the completion of the required course work.

WINNER — Karen Segawa, left, a student at Mount Miguel High School, goes over topics for speech with speech instructor Myrna Goodwin. Karen, who is a member of the speech team coached by Mrs. Goodwin, took first place in girls' extemporaneous in state tournament held recently at San Fernando State College. She will represent the state and Mount Miguel this summer at the National Tournament, which will be held at Stanford.

CLEANING UP — Members of Cub Pack 318, of Lemon Grove, which has spent many hours this month on ecology and environment projects, were at it again last Friday as they were busy sweeping up papers and dirt along Broadway. The group spent most of its time sweeping up a dirty spot on the south side of the street near the intersection of Kempf st.

Annual Trouble Shooting Meet Planned May 5

The annual Plymouth Trouble-Shooting Contest, sponsored by Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motor Corporation, will be held May 5, at Clairemont High School.

The purpose of the contest is to recognize and honor outstanding young student auto mechanics and to encourage them to make a career as automobile mechanics.

Competing for more than $125,000 worth of scholarships and awards, students take a written exam which counts as 30 per cent of the teams' final scores. They then race the clock to find and fix several malfunctions deliberately placed under the hoods of new Plymouth cars. This mechanical challenge counts as 70 per cent of a team's score.

The contest originated in 1949 as a local event in Los Angeles with 50 students from 17 high schools participating. Today it is a national event with more than 2,000 high schools and colleges representing all 50 states.

According to Dan Loreman, Mount Miguel auto shop instructor, names of students from Mt. Miguel to be participating in this nationally famous competition will be announced before May 5.

Christine Hall Named To Dean's Honor List

Symposium Planned In Lemon Grove For High School Students

"Law Enforcement and Youth" will be the topic of the Fifth Annual Business Educational Symposium set for students in the Grossmont High School District. Two hundred students from Grossmont, Helix, Mount Miguel and Monte Vista will participate in this year's symposium.

The event, which will be held April 15, at the Wesleyan Skyline Church in Lemon Grove, is co-sponsored by the La Mesa Chamber of Commerce and the Grossmont Union High School District.

Cabell

"Students, as well as faculty representatives and chamber members, worked together in planning the convention. This year's topic was chosen to give students a better understanding of law enforcement agencies," according to T. A. Lambert, chairman of the convention.

The symposium will feature keynote speaker Clarence Cabell, Chief Deputy Clerk of Los Angeles County. Cabell has dealt with the problems of the administration of criminal justice for the past 23 years. He began as a boy's counselor at Central Juvenile Hall in Los Angeles County, and later became administrative deputy of the Los Angeles County Probation Department.

The conference will also include several discussion groups on various topics concerning law enforcement. These topics will include:

rights for citizens under 18; search and seizure; undercover agents; the people's rights vs. individual rights; rights of police in enforcing the law; lawful and unlawful dissent;

what does it take to be "good" policemen? selective enforcement of laws, including archaic laws; drug problems and youth and the police; and what laws the police themselves feel are wrong or difficult to enforce.

Arrangements for leaders of the various discussion groups were made by Warren Kanagy, Deputy Sheriff, San Diego County, and Lt. Bill Cook, La Mesa Police Department.

Annual 'Highland Games' Set At Helix High School

Individual competitors will be entered from the Helix Highlander Band, La Habra, and Glendora bands.

The program will feature the Highland Fling sword dance and traditional Scottish music.

Concession stands will be open during the all-day festivities, and the American Pipers' Supply, a local importer, will have authentic Tartan material and other Scottish imports on sale.

"The purpose of the Highland Games is to promote Highland tradition and to provide a high caliber competition for pipe bands," Tom Nyström, Helix High bagpipe band member and Games chairman, said.

Matador Depth Puts Team On Top In League Race

By John Nicholson

Depth and a sweep in the 100-yard dash gave the Mount Miguel track and field team a big lift as they cleared the first hurdle enroute to the Grossmont League title last Friday as the Matadors downed Helix, 75-61.

Preseason predictions had the local crew finishing as low as fourth place behind Monte Vista, Helix, and Granite Hills because the Matadors lack a star-studded attack, but depth has put Mount Miguel in undisputed possession of first place.

Monte Vista, in the early going, boasted an attack that included super-stars Tom Lux in the mile and two-mile, Max Gabaldon, in the pole vault and hurdles, and Dennis Romano in the sprints and long jump.

Helix relies on the likes of Rick Schiltz, in the pole vault, discus and relays, Ed Mendoza in the mile and two-mile, and Bob Bishop in the 440 and 880.

Granite Hills puts most of its eggs in two baskets, those of Tom Pizkin, who anchors a pair of fine relay teams and runs the 440, and Steve Goward, who runs the sprints and helps out with the mile relay.

Mount Miguel's stars are less famous, but very effective at winning track meets.

Who ever heard of Larry Tyler? Tyler is the man who led the Mount Miguel sweep in the 100-yard dash against Helix. He also won the 220.

And what about Jerry Eubanks? Ever heard of him? He won the 180-yard low hurdles Friday. And the 120-yard high hurdles.

John Heimaster is another of Mount Miguel's unsung heroes. He beat all comers in the triple jump and finished second in the long jump Friday.

Of course, Mount Miguel does own a few names that have ended up in print this year. Mike King is one, and Bob Morrison is the other. Oh yes — Milton Johnson is another name that has been heard occasionally.

King has been acclaimed shot put king of the eastern part of the county. Bob Morrison, a junior, has been dubbed heir-apparent to the mile monarchy when Terry Cotton and Ed Mendoza graduate, and Johnson is the leader, or was the leader, of the local sprint crew.

King won the shot put against Helix and finished second in the discus. Morrison took second in the mile, and Johnson took second in the 100, second in the 180-yard low hurdles, and helped the 440 relay team win.

With the help of Mount Miguel's stars and non-stars, the Matadors are well on their way to the Grossmont League crown. All they must do now is beat Monte Vista tomorrow afternoon and knock off Granite Hills later in the season.

Monte Vista should pose less of a threat to the local crew than Helix did, as the Monarchs have lost Tom Lux, who resigned from the team before the league campaign started.

Mount Miguel should have even less trouble with Granite Hills, a team that has many weak spots where the Matador depth should make the difference.

Tomorrow afternoon's meet with Monte Vista will be held on the Mount Miguel oval, starting at 2:45 p.m. Following is an event-by-event rundown:

100 — Mount Miguel's Larry Tyler and Milt Johnson and Monte Vista's Dennis Romano should present an interesting battle with the winner too close to call.

220 — Romano should pick up the points for Monte Vista here, with Tyler second or third.

440 — Monte Vista's Gary Close and Mount Miguel's Steve Dougherty will provide a good race. Too close to call.

880 — Monte Vista should take first, but Mt. Miguel's entries should get second and third.

Mile — Bob Morrison, of Mount Miguel, should win over Tom Sims, of Monte Vista.

Two-mile — Gary Close should win easily for Monte Vista.

120-high hurdles — Jerry Eubanks should win it for Mt. Miguel.

180-lows — Milton Johnson should win for Miguel, with Eubanks second and Monte Vista's Max Gabaldon third.

440-relay — Mount Miguel should win, but very close.

1 mile relay — Mount Miguel should win again, but again a very close race.

High jump — If John Slater is healthy, he should win for Miguel, but MV's Gary Nepear-ski could surprise.

Pole vault — Gabaldon should win handily but Miguel depth should see Randy Ellis second.

Long jump — John Heimaster should beat Monte Vista's Romano.

Triple jump — Heimaster should win easily.

Shot put — Mike King should lead Mount Miguel, possibly a sweep.

Discus — Good battle between Mike King and Monte Vista's Frank. Too close to call.

Overall score — Should be near 78-58 in favor of Mount Miguel, the home team.

Four National Champs In San Diego Relays

Four outstanding athletes who already have the top outdoor marks in the nation in their respective specialties have confirmed that they will appear here April 10 for the 12th San Diego Relays at Balboa Stadium.

The talented foursome includes pole vaulter Steve Smith of the Pacific Coast Club, discus ace Gary Ordway from PCC, 6-mile standout Mark Covert from Cal State Fullerton, and San Diego State's freshman high jump sensation Jerry Culp.

Smith, who recently cleared 16-9 1/2 for the top outdoor effort of this young season, will be hard-pressed to win to walk off with the San Diego Relays title ribbon, however.

The tentative pole vault field in the university-open division contains eight other vaulters with bests of 16-feet or better. In fact, three still unconfirmed — Bob Seagrang, John Pennell and Dick Ralston — all are 17-plus soars.

Ordway, who boasts a 203-5 nation-leading discus toss, should also find all the competition he wants from a tentative seven-man field which shows five with career bests over 190 feet and three over 200.

Gary Carlson (210-5) and Ed Kohler (200-1), both of the Southern California Striders, loom as Ordway's toughest obstacles enroute to the discus honors.

Covert, with a best of 28:08 in the six-mile run, rates a solid favorite to unseat last year's champion, Jerry Jobski of the Pacific Coast Club. Jobski has a best of 28:36.6 while Ray Hughes of the Striders should make it an interesting three-man battle at 28:37.4.

Perhaps facing the toughest test of all is Culp, the Aztecs' outstanding leaper out of Oceanside High, who cleared a San Diego State record 7-foot, 1-inch in his first outdoor appearance this season.

Meet director Tony Succi's tentative high jump field has seven other jumpers with bests of seven feet or better, however, led by Bill Elliott of PCC and Clarence Johnson, competing unattached. Both have cleared 7-3 1/4.

Others expected to round out the star-studded field include Barry Shepard (7-2) of PCC; Ed Hanks (7-0), San Diego Track Club; Lorenzo Allen (7-1 3/4), University of Arizona; John Dobroth (7-3/4), PCC; and John Hartfield (7-2), U. S. Army.

This year's pre-Easter relays carnival will get under way at 9 a.m. with action in the high school pole vault. Official opening ceremonies are scheduled for 1:50 p.m., followed by a full afternoon of finals action.

Offering many of the nation's top athletes in four divisions — junior high, high school, junior college and university-open — the 76-event program will conclude at 5:35 p.m. with the university-open mile relay.

Succi expects more than 100 teams and 1,500 athletes will compete this year, making it the largest San Diego Relays in history. Admission prices are $2 for adults and $1 for students.

STREAKING — Larry Tyler, left, appears to be trailing in the 100-yard dash behind teammate Milton Johnson, right, as the two approach the finish tape in meet against Helix last Friday. Tyler was awarded first place, however, as he brought his head down in time to beat Johnson by a whisker. Both were given fine time of 10.2 seconds for the distance. Mount Miguel swept the event and beat the Highlanders in the overall meet to take over first place in the Grossmont League. Helix, prior to last Friday, had an unbeaten league string of 24 consecutive dual meet victories.

Cajon Racing Season Starts Saturday Night

"Similin' Ed", Lemon Grove's Ed Hale, will be on hand Saturday night at Cajon Speedway to defend his super stock-points championship of last year when super stock cars and limited stockers take to the asphalt oval for the start of the 1971 season.

Drivers who will run in the races this season had a chance to try out the track last Saturday night and fans had an opportunity to see action free of charge when the track held an open house.

Hale

Among over 100 pilots and cars on hand last Saturday were Hale, who will be back in the Barnicle Oil Company Special that won the championship for him last year, and Russ Bullen, who was the early leader last year and finally finished second.

Bullen, of Bonita, drove the Engine Eddy Special last season, but will take over the Marek Motors Special this season, which last year was last year's Most Improved Driver, and Carl Adams, also of Lemon Grove.

Pat McIntyre, of Spring Valley, who finished fourth in the point standings last year, is expected to be ready to run by Saturday night.

Scheduled for Saturday night's program will be time trials at 6:30 p.m., a three-lap trophy dash at 8 p.m., and heat races to follow. The 30-lap main event will get underway around 9:30 p.m.

Seating for 6,000 fans is available, and according to track manager Earle Brucker, Jr., a full house is expected. Ticket prices have increased 25 cents over last year's prices, and the junior ticket has been dropped.

Drug Penalty Laid

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — John James Cappiello, 20, of 8812 Noeline ave., Spring Valley, pleaded guilty last week on a charge of visiting a place where narcotics were used.

Judge Francis E. Gallagher put him on three years' probation and fined him $150. Cappiello was one of a group picked up in the South Bay area Nov. 6.

Padres To Open Third Season Tuesday Night

Tuesday night the toil of seven weeks is wrapped up in one of the season's most significant moments, the opening game of the 1971 National League season.

It'll be the third home opener for the Padres and they have won the previous pair. This time the Giants of San Francisco, a title contender and baseball's most skillful congregation over the last three months of 1970, are both accomplices and antagonists of the Padres.

"We're good enough to be a .500 club," is the team sentiment, a bold declaration since it required seven years for the Mets to win as many games in one season as they lost.

"We're definitely improved," says manager Preston Gomez. "How much remains to be proven. But I'm excited about this club. We could have a lot of fun before the season is over."

In baseball, you have fun only when you win.

Tuesday night's game time is 7:30. But the opening game ceremonies commence at 7 p.m. There will be music and marching and all the color and excitement one would expect.

The largest baseball crowd in San Diego Stadium history is anticipated. Traditionally, the greatest attendance of the season has arrived for the opening game and indications are for a similar splash Tuesday.

Nevertheless, good tickets in all price ranges still are available. They may be purchased daily prior to the game at the Padre ticket offices, Gate D, at the Stadium.

Special interest Tuesday night will be centered on the Padres new shortstop, Enzo Hernandez. Acquired from Baltimore in a winter trade, Hernandez accomplished defensive plays that were the talk of the spring.

"There's no question that Hernandez has improved our defense," manager Gomez maintains. "He can make the type of play we never had before."

And Padre pitching also has been very positive. Clay Kirby, Tom Phoebus, Steve Arlin and Dave Roberts all enjoyed an exceptional spring training.

The power, of course, still remain. Colbert, Brown and Clarence Gaston constitute the heart of an attack that last year produced 172 homers, third best in the National League.

"I believe our pitching is good and our defense is going to be much better," Gomez said. "Our men who hit the ball out of the park last year are going to do the same thing this year. If we can get more men on base for them to drive in, then we're really going to have some fun."

Plans for Grossmont College's first Renaissance Faire have been completed and all campus organizations are busy constructing costumes, booths, stages and backdrops for the festive celebration that will open for a four-day run on Thursday, April 22.

More than 15 groups, including musicians, actors and dancers have already been scheduled for performances during the four-day Renaissance Faire. More than 30 artisans and craftsmen have reserved space to display their hand some crafts. Food stands, located throughout the Faire grounds, will serve unusual type foods. Hot meals of beef ribs and chicken will be prepared in the college cafeteria and offered to visitors.

Clark Mires, drama instructor, is busy overseeing the design and construction of costumes appropriate for both participants and guests of the Faire. A prize is scheduled for best costume costing less than $5. Mires has designed a number of simple costumes that can be made inexpensively by almost anyone. Diagrams of these costumes may be obtained from the drama department costume office at the college.

The public is invited to join with the students of Grossmont College in spirit, as well as body, and dress in costumes appropriate to the time. There will be no charge for admission to the Faire, but $1 parking fee will be charged on Saturday and Sunday, April 24 and 25.

In ancient days disease and illness was thought of as retribution by the gods for some act that displeased them. Today, of course, we know better. But we still have a lot to learn through medical research like that supported through the Combined Health Agencies Drive.

ANTIQUE - The antique automobile shown in photo was one of 17 classics which were on display last Saturday at Lemon Grove Junior High as an added attraction to the annual Kiwanis Pancake Day, which drew over 2,000 people. According to E. K. Mott, of the Kiwanis Club, over 6,000 pancakes were served during the day, and 375 pounds of ham were consumed, as was 150 pounds of sausage. It took 38 gallons of syrup to get through the day. According to ticket sales managers Noel Hanson and Bill Floyd, 4,500 tickets were sold at $1 each, with proceeds to go to the Kiwanis general fund, which provides scholarships, medical aid, and other financial aid to the needy in the area.

Week's Horoscope

This Is Your Life

By TRENT VARRO

ARIES - March 21 to April 30
Don't let "frustrations" deter you from some very worthy project. But at the same time don't allow yourself to become run-down. You've got things going for you.

TAURUS - April 21 to May 20
Business conditions should be good for the sign of Taurus at this time. This is not an especially good time for travel, and it would be wiser to put off any intended pleasure trip.

GEMINI - May 21 to June 20
You've got things "coming and going" for you right now, in such a manner, that you probably don't even know which end is up! Slow down, and don't let your emotions run away with you.

CANCER - June 21 to July 21
Careful handling of your activities can bring about much gain at this time, but on the other hand if you are careless, or arrogant in respect to the needs of others, you'll suffer.

LEO - July 22 to August 21
The planet Mars is working overtime in your behalf. You can expect changes, surprises, and a great deal of activity in all business matters. Don't go to extremes, but you can "push" a little harder.

VIRGO - August 22 to Sept. 21
You may see the results of your past life bear fruit during the next couple of weeks. This can be good or bad, whichever way you want it. The stars are beginning to shine again in your favour.

LIBRA - Sept. 22 to October 22
Conditions in Libra are not exactly good, but at the same time they are not "hopeless." A general feeling of being run-down may be the best thing in the world for you, as it will tend to make you slow up and THINK!

SCORPIO - Oct. 23 to Nov. 21
A major crisis in business matters will probably be coming up very shortly. If you think and act with due care and attention, all should go well for you. You may have to change your outlook completely.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov. 22 to Dec. 20
An emotional matter may be taking up much of your time now. Don't let this disturb you too much, as it will all work out in your favour a little later. Your home life is very well aspected.

CAPRICORN - Dec. 21 - Jan. 19
Domestic matters are most important at this time. Your home may be a little upset, and it's just as well to make this "upset" a practical one, by house cleaning, rather than have it upset you in other ways.

AQUARIUS - Jan. 20 - Feb. 18
Don't let your heart run-off with your head, at this time. Look at things in a sensible light and you may see where changes can be made that will benefit you. You are lucky now.

PISCES - Feb. 19 to Mar. 20
On no account, try to do too much at this time. You'll only

She is married and is the mother of two sons, and is a member of the San Diego Historical Society, the National Health Federation, the Monte Vista High School Music Parents Club, and is a former cub scout den mother, a little league team mother, and a 4-H project leader.

Adela Hatherill

She attended San Diego City College and is a graduate of a vocational college.

She is running because, she said, she wants to represent the community with an objective viewpoint.

She added that as a board member, she would want to have a thorough evaluation of all potential teachers. She would want to know their academic background, if they have police records, or if they are politically liberal or radical, she said.

Robert W. Stevens, a partner in the law firm Curto and Stevens and president of the Foothills Bar Association, is a candidate for Grossmont Union High School District Board.

Stevens, who is active in the El Cajon Kiwanis, is married and has two youngsters. He is active in the El Cajon Boy Scout program, the Black Mountain VFW Post, the El Cajon Crisis Center, and teaches a business law course at Grossmont College.

He is, he said, an advocate of the 12-month school year plan and feels that more pressure should be put on the legislature for financial assistance to schools to cut down on local property taxes.

He added that he would like to see more community involvement in the school district and more emphasis on vocational education for those who are not planning a college education.

John I. Hanson, of 8031 Royal Gardens ct., El Cajon, is a candidate for the Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees.

Hanson, 39, is married and has a family. He holds a BS degree in Public Administration from USC, and a Masters Degree in Public Administration from San Diego State College.

Hanson

He also served in the Navy as a Lt. Commander.

Hanson said that he is seeking the seat because of his concern for the future of American youth. He also said that he cares about people, individually and collectively.

He added that being the first candidate to declare his candidacy indicates his desire to get at the problems and seek solutions for the district. He also criticized the current drug policy which calls for expulsion of drug abusers. He called for a new program of rehabilitation.

Lemon Grove Man Is Fellowship Finalist

John L. Bryant, of 1612 La Corta, Lemon Grove was named as one of 1,046 students in Universities throughout the United States who were finalists in the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Foundation competition.

Bryant, a student at the University of Chicago, was selected as a finalist out of over 10,000 students who were nominated by their professors.

TEEVEE SPEAKER—Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin was speaker at the Man of the Year luncheon sponsored by the National Association of Television Executives in Houston recently. Van told broadcasters that Congress will establish a permanent funding system for public broadcasting and legislate the mounting costs of political campaigning. Public TV funds will probably come from a surtax on new sets it was thought. In the photo are Van, Roone Arledge, president for ABC Sports, Inc., center, to whom NATPE President Herb Victor is presenting the Man of the Year Award.

'Iron Mask' Plus Organ is Program

Southland Music Center, 3459 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, will present veteran showman Del Castillo in a program of theatre organ music, a sing-along and the Douglas Fairbanks silent classic "The Iron Mask." The program will be presented twice due to popular demand — once on Saturday, April 10 at 8 p.m. and again on Sunday, April 11 at 2:30 p.m.

Tommy Stark, of Southland Center said Castillo's show is a special Easter event for the community. It is also the fifth such presentation in the old Grove Theatre — the theatre Stark and his partner, Jim Hansen bought and refurbished last year.

Castillo, featured organist in such deluxe movie palaces as the Boston Met, the New York Rialto, Loew's State, and others, has been at various times conductor-composer for musical shows, a leader with an army band, a concert organist, program director for CBS in Boston, free lance musical director and organist on all the major networks in Los Angeles, musical director for seven years on ABC-TV's "You Asked For It," recording artist for Concert Recording, and head of the organ department of the Sherman School of Music.

On May 8 and 9 Gaylord Carter will return with a Harold Lloyd presentation. June 12 and 13 concerts will be done by Ann Leaf with the silent comedy "Cops" with Buster Keaton. July 10 and 11 concert will be with Tommy Stark followed by Jim Hansen on August 13 and 14.

Jonas Nordwall will be presented on September 11 and 12. In October, Tommy Stark returns to the stage with Lon Chaney in "The Phantom of the Opera."

Ybarrondo's selection at the end of the year as Inspector of the Year for Area III made him eligible for the statewide honor.

Petition Nears Completion For Broadway Strip

bring the total to nearly 60 per cent, the percentage required by law.

The petition is for forming a county service district to upgrade and maintain privately owned parking on both sides of Broadway between Kempf and Olive and to landscape center islands in the same area.

Reports were given by Planning Association President James Dorman; Procedures Chairman G. E. Moyers; Secretary Evelyn Taylor and Ben Ela discussed Planned Residential Development which, as usual, produced considerable discussion.

John J. Bostez, of the urban planning section, and J. M. Damberger, design engineer, both of the California Division of Highways, discussed the Costa Bella ramp, now scheduled for early 1972, and Route 125 (Sweetwater) scheduled for late in the 1970's. It was reported that the Grove st. on-off ramp would not be closed until 125 is completed.

Wednesday morning, Howard Taylor, County Engineer, said $273,800 in federal funds for the Broadway improvement had been approved. The program is TOPICS, an acronym for Traffic Operations Improvement.

Taylor said Broadway upgrading and the work to be scheduled under the County Service Area would be done at one time — probably late this year. The public road section could be started almost immediately, he said, but it would be too closely to do them separately.

Miguel Swim, Tennis Teams Get Victories

By Walter Ekard

Spring sports have long been Mount Miguel's strongpoint each year and this year appears to be no exception, as the Matador tennis and swim teams romped to victory in last week's action.

Dave Johnson led the Matador amphibians as he swam away with two firsts, one in the backstroke and the other in the butterfly, while Ike Bailey, Linch Szuch and freshmen Steve Solomen and Fred Hart all aided the Matador charge.

Meanwhile, Dick Trebbian, Dale Sison, and John Scott led the Matador netmen to a 22-3/4 to 5-1/4 victory over weak Granite Hills.

Trebbian, a southpaw and Miguel's number one man, banged out four consecutive victories to lead the way. Senior Sison and Scott each grabbed three wins to aid the Matador cause and even their league record at 1-1.
